1. Executive Summary

1.1 The work

Glydrift is an original one-touch arcade video game for mobile devices and web browsers. The player guides a flying character through a continuously scrolling series of themed worlds, avoiding obstacles. The game includes collectible characters, seasonal reward tracks, online leaderboards, optional player accounts and a mode of fifty designed levels.

1.2 Creator and owner

Sam Eyde III conceived, designed, named and directed the game and states that he is its sole owner. The software code and visual and audio assets were produced with an AI software-development tool (Claude Code, provided by Anthropic) operating under his direction. Section 2 sets out the facts.

1.3 Development period

The game was built between 2 and 6 November 2026 (five calendar days). The project's version-control history for this period records 196 commits on the main development line. Working titles used before development began were Beat Glider and Glydr.

1.4 Current status

According to the owner and the project records, the web version is published at glydrift.com, hosted on Cloudflare Pages since 5 November 2026. An iOS version has been prepared for distribution through the Apple App Store; submission is planned and has not yet taken place. The availability of glydrift.com could not be independently checked from the environment in which this document was prepared.

1.5 Revenue model

The game is free to play and carries no advertising. Its only real-money purchase is Drift Pass+, an optional seasonal reward track priced at US$3.99 per season and sold through Apple In-App Purchase in the iOS app. The web version does not sell it, and because the iOS app has not yet been released, no purchases are currently possible. The game does not collect or store payment card data.

2. Ownership Statement

2.1 Creative authorship

Sam Eyde III originated and made the creative and commercial decisions for the work, including:

- the game concept and its core mechanics;
- the game title and the names of its features, including Drift Pass, Drift Pass+, Founding Drifter and Daily Drift Drop;
- the characters, including their names, species or form, appearance and distinguishing attributes;
- the worlds, their order and themes, and the names of the fifty levels;
- the visual direction, including the change to a pixel-art style on 2 November 2026;
- the music direction, including the change from house music to a reggae soundtrack on 6 November 2026;
- the monetization model and pricing; and
- the selection, approval, rejection and revision of each feature, change and correction, informed by his own play-testing.

2.2 Use of an AI development tool

The source code, the procedurally generated pixel art and the music-generation code were written by Claude Code, an AI coding tool provided by Anthropic, in working sessions in which Sam Eyde III gave the instructions and reviewed the results. Claude Code also created the version-control commits. For that reason the version-control history lists “Claude” as the author of 183 of the 196 commits on the main development line. The remaining 13 were made by an automated GitHub Actions process that records test screenshots. No other person appears as a contributor in the project history.

2.3 Terms of the tool provider

Anthropic’s Consumer Terms of Service (effective 8 October 2025) state: “Subject to your compliance with our Terms, we assign to you all of our right, title, and interest—if any—in Outputs.” Which version of Anthropic’s terms applies (consumer or commercial, and the version in force at the time of use) depends on the account used and is listed for confirmation in Section 9.

2.4 Ownership

Sam Eyde III states that he is the sole owner of the work. He is not aware of any co-owner, any assignment of rights in the work to another party, or any licence of the work granted to another party. This statement records facts as provided and found in the project records. It does not express a legal conclusion on the existence or scope of any intellectual-property right.

4. Third-Party Components and Licenses

The following third-party components were identified from the project's package manifest, its installed dependency tree and its asset folders. "Shipped" means the component is included in the game delivered to players; "Build only" means it is used to build or test the game and is not delivered.

Component	Purpose	License	Distribution	Flag
Phaser 3.90.0	Game engine	MIT	Shipped	None
Tone.js 15.1.22	Music synthesis	MIT	Shipped	None
Supabase JavaScript client 2.118.0 (with its auth, database, realtime, storage and functions modules)	Accounts, leaderboards, cloud save	MIT	Shipped	None
Capacitor Core and Capacitor iOS 8.6.0	Packages the game as an iOS app	MIT	Shipped (iOS)	None
Supporting libraries: eventemitter3, standardized-audio-context, automation-events, Babel runtime, Phoenix client, iceberg-js	Dependencies of the above	MIT	Shipped	None
tslib	Dependency of the above	0BSD	Shipped	None
jose 5	Purchase verification (server function)	MIT	Server only	None
Galmuri font 2.40.3 (© Lee Minseo)	Korean characters	SIL OFL 1.1	Shipped	Conditions; see note
Orbitron font	Headings and interface	SIL OFL 1.1	Shipped	Conditions; see note
Rajdhani font	Web page text	SIL OFL 1.1	Shipped	Conditions; see note
Silkscreen font	Pixel-style text	SIL OFL 1.1	Shipped	Conditions; see note
Vite 8.3.5	Build tool	MIT	Build only	None
Capacitor CLI 8.6.0	iOS build tool	MIT	Build only	None
Playwright 1.63.0	Automated testing	Apache 2.0	Build only	None

Findings. No component under a copyleft or other non-permissive licence (for example GPL, LGPL or AGPL) was found. The MIT, 0BSD and Apache 2.0 licences are permissive; MIT and Apache 2.0 require that the copyright and licence notices accompany copies of the software. The four fonts are under the SIL Open Font License 1.1, which permits bundling them in the game but requires the licence to accompany them, does not permit selling the fonts on their own, and restricts use of any Reserved Font Name for modified versions. Platform services (Apple StoreKit and Sign in with Apple, Supabase, Cloudflare) are governed by their providers' service terms rather than open-source licences.

5. Accounts and Services

Account holder names and email addresses are not recorded in the project files and are left blank for completion. Identifiers that do appear in the project records are listed in Appendix A.

Service	Used for	Account / identifier	Registered name or email
GitHub	Source code repository, automated tests and deployment	User account 27eydes-blip
Cloudflare	DNS and website hosting (Cloudflare Pages) for glydrift.com
Supabase	Backend: player accounts, leaderboards, cloud save, purchase verification	Project listed in Appendix A

6. Revenue Model

Item	Description
Price of the game	Free to download and play.
Paid content	Drift Pass+: an optional reward track for each four-week season, US$3.99 per season, one purchase per season. Rewards are cosmetic and do not affect gameplay, scoring or leaderboards.

© 2026 Sam Eyde III. All rights reserved. Confidential.

Item	Description
Platform fee	Apple's commission for developers enrolled in the App Store Small Business Program is 15%. Enrollment is to be confirmed (Section 9).
Advertising	None. The game contains no advertising software.
In-game currency	Coins are earned through play only and cannot be bought with real money. Randomised reward features in the game use coins, not real money.
Payment data	None stored by the game. Apple processes payments; the game keeps only the transaction record described in Section 7.

7. User Data Summary

Data	Purpose	Where stored
Anonymous player ID (one per device)	Identifies the player for leaderboards	Supabase
Username (3–12 characters)	Shown on public leaderboards	Supabase
Email address and password (optional account)	Sign-in and account recovery. Passwords are stored only as a hash	Supabase (authentication)
Apple sign-in identifier (optional, iOS)	Sign in with Apple	Supabase (authentication)
Scores, distance, character, run time, title	Public leaderboards and anti-cheat checks	Supabase

Gameplay analytics events	Product improvement	On the player's device only; not transmitted

The game does not collect location, contacts, photos, advertising identifiers or payment card details, and does not use player data for tracking or advertising. Service providers (Supabase, Apple) process IP addresses and request logs to operate their services. Players can delete their account from the game's settings, which removes the account, cloud save, leaderboard entries and purchase records.

Privacy policy. The project contains a data-collection summary prepared for the privacy policy and for Apple's App Store privacy labels. A published privacy policy was not found in the project files; its publication and location are listed for confirmation in Section 9.

8. Development Record

Dates are in Coordinated Universal Time (UTC), as recorded in the version-control history.

Before development The game was conceived under the working title Beat Glider, renamed Glydr, and then Glydrift. These names predate the code and are recorded from the owner's notes.

2 November 2026 The first version of Glydrift was created: the core flying game, an online leaderboard and an installable web app. The same day the visual style was changed from neon vector graphics to pixel art, the first worlds and characters were drawn in that style, and support for iPad, the Lucky Spin reward wheel and the first shop characters were added.

3 November 2026 Two further worlds (Peaceful Valley and Hurricane) and four rift worlds were added, together with scoring features, the coin shop, character customisation, a link page for social media and the first Drift Pass. Several principal characters were introduced, including SMASH, MILZZZ, MANNY, WALLRUNNER, SPRINGER, DZR and YARMS.

4 November 2026 Four-week seasons and a 50-tier Drift Pass were introduced, along with the character 손주원 and a Korean font. Player accounts with cloud save, two leaderboards, player titles and the paid Drift Pass+ track were added, followed by Drift Pass+ Season 1 characters, quality and compatibility testing across browsers and devices, and refinement of each core world's scenery.

5 November 2026 The website moved to glydrift.com on Cloudflare Pages, marked by the Founding Drifter launch reward. The character MATTOE and a new app icon were added, and the score leaderboard became the main leaderboard.

6 November 2026 Drift Pass+ Season 1 rewards were completed with server-side checks. The falcon character was added as SPLICE and renamed SXE. The soundtrack was replaced by original reggae music. Level mode was built and its fifty levels were released in five sets.

9. Open Items for Review

The following matters are identified for review by counsel or an accountant. They are listed without a view on their outcome.

1. Business entity. The work is currently held by Sam Eyde III personally. If a company (for example an LLC) is formed, consider the formation, and whether and how the intellectual property and the service accounts are transferred to it.
2. Trademarks. Clearance searches and possible applications for Glydrift, Drift Pass, Drift Pass+, Founding Drifter and Daily Drift Drop.
3. Copyright in AI-assisted work. The extent to which copyright protects material produced with an AI tool, how human creative contribution is documented, and the disclosure requirements of any copyright registration.
4. AI tool terms. Which Anthropic terms (consumer or commercial, and which version) applied during development, and retaining a copy.
5. Repository visibility and licence. The source code is held in a public GitHub repository named “Cheats”, which is a fork of an unrelated project. The main development line contains no licence file; an “all rights reserved” licence exists only on a separate, unmerged branch.
6. App Store agreements. Apple Developer Program License Agreement, Paid Applications Agreement, tax and banking forms, and enrollment in the App Store Small Business Program.
7. Privacy. Publication of a privacy policy, the App Store privacy labels, the game’s age rating and audience, and any obligations relating to children’s data.
8. Third-party notices. Including the required licence and copyright notices for the components in Section 4 (in particular the font licences) with the game.
9. Domain and accounts. Recording the registrar, registration date and registrant of glydrift.com, and confirming that the domain and every account in Section 5 are registered to the owner.
10. Character names. Whether any character name refers to a real person and, if so, whether that person’s consent is needed.
11. iOS app identifier. Two different iOS bundle identifiers appear in the project (listed in Appendix A); one is to be confirmed before submission.

A.1 How the statistics were measured

All figures were taken from the git history on 6 November 2026, limited to the `glydrift/` folder. Commits: `git log` on the main development branch (196), and the number of distinct commits on all branches (275). Authors: the author field of each commit. Lines added and removed: the sum of `git log --numstat`, excluding binary files such as screenshots. Source lines: the line count of the files under `glydrift/src`. Licences: read from each installed package's manifest and the font licence files.

A.2 Sources

Project files consulted include the project README, AUTHORSHIP.md, docs/PRIVACY_DATA.md, docs/MUSIC_REGGAE.md, docs/CLOUDFLARE_MOVE.md, package.json and the character and level definition files. Anthropic's Consumer Terms were read at anthropic.com/legal/consumer-terms on 6 November 2026.
